University of Minnesota Department of Psychiatry

Family Research Study on Psychotic Disorders

"Neural Disconnection and Errant Visual Perception in Psychotic Psychopathology"

Participation involves…

- Set of interviews
- Cognitive assessment of thinking abilities
- Neurological exam
- Blood draw
- MRI
- 20 hours over 3 appointments

Compensation

$400 for full completion of study and additional $150 for a potential follow-up procedure

For more information, please contact us at:

cablab@umn.edu

612-625-7607

Scan here for more information

Mapping the connections of the brain using MRI (www.humanconnectomeproject.org)

Do you or a family member have schizophrenia, schizoaffective disorder, or bipolar disorder?

Mental health patients and their immediate family members are sought for participation in a family study to understand thinking functions and visual perception.

Requirements for participation include:

- Participant between 18 and 65 years old
- Good general physical health
- No history of a central nervous system disorder or problems
- Primary language must be English

Cognition research
cablab@umn.edu
(612) 625-7607